NEVILLE *P*ETER

MINISTRIES

Neville Peter was diagnosed with Glaucoma at an early age, and completely blind by the age of 12. Neville has remarkably developed his gifts as a singer and musician. Today, he shines as one of the bright emerging talents in the gospel industry. While in college he was voted National College Jazz Male Vocalist of the Year by Downbeat Magazine. Neville gave his life and career completely to God in 1998, and has since penned more than 100 gospel songs. His music was featured on the gospel project of the legendary Gladys Knight, and his music videos have been featured on BET’s Video Gospel Program. He has shared the stage in ministry with such notables as Andrae Crouch, Shirley Caesar, Donnie McClurkin, Yolanda Adams, Richard Smallwood, BeBe Winans and many others. He has performed at the White House, Carnegie Hall and appeared on many television programs including TBN’s “Praise the Lord” program, Bobby Jones Gospel Show, and many others.

All of his musical projects (CD's and DVD's) will be available today.
